

PRIVACY POLICY

Food Allergy Association of Wisconsin, Inc. takes the privacy of our members very seriously. This policy will define what information we collect, how it is used, and how we protect it. If you have any questions regarding our privacy policy, you may write to us at webmaster@foodallergywis.org

1. Personal information we collect

We collect personally-identifiable information you voluntarily provide us through the registration process, by filling out a form, or by email contact with us.

2. How we use your personal information

- To send you email notifications of meeting notices, newsletters, fund raising efforts, and other food allergy related emails.
- To match you up in our buddy program with a family that is dealing with the same or similar allergens, or by location.
- To tailor meeting topics to member's allergens, children's ages, or needs.

3. Personal information we share and with whom we share it

Any personal information we collect we will consider to be confidential. We will not use or disclose your personal information to any third party without your consent. However, we may need to disclose personal information as required by law, such as a law, regulation, court order, subpoena, search warrant, in the course of a legal proceeding or in response to a law enforcement agency request, to enforce our Terms of Service, or site rules; or to protect the safety and security of our visitors and our sites.

4. How we protect your personal information

We require our volunteers and any staff we may hire or persons with whom we may contract to sign an agreement that confirms their commitment to maintain the confidentiality of any personal information to which they have access, and limits their access to and use of any personal information in our possession to that which they need to use in the course of their work for us.

5. Our policies regarding children

We do not provide Web-based services for children at this time, although we do provide services to adults that are for the benefit of their children. We will not intentionally collect any information from a child under age 13 years of age.

6. Links to other sites

We provide links to other sites. These sites have their own privacy policies that will be different and are not controlled or endorsed by Food Allergy Association of Wisconsin Inc. We encourage you to familiarize yourself with any site's privacy policy before submitting any personal information to it.

7. Changes to our privacy policy

We will inform you of any update or change to our privacy policy, which we may change at any time.
